

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

STATIONS AIR "STOLEN HONOR" - MR. KERRY
REPPLEASE DO NOT HAVE YOUR ORTED FOR DUTY TO HIS COUNTRY AND HE SHOWED UP TO DO
IT. MR. BUSH DID NOT , SO PLEASE AIR "GOING UPRIVER" SHORTLY AFTER, BUT, BEFORE THE ELECTION. FAIR IS FAIR. OR YOU CAN AIR
"FAHRENFEIT 9/11" WHATS FAIR IS FAIR.....

IT IS NOT FAIR TO AIR A NEGATIVE MOVIE ABOUT A PATRIOTIC MAN, JOHN KERRY, AND NOT GIVE FAIR TIME FOR OUR PRESIDENT WHO DID NOT SERVE HIS TIME IN THE MILITARY PROPERLY , CAN SKATE BY, WHILE A TRUE PATRIOT IS RIDICULED.

THANK YOU,
